

Attend TALMID 2017: A Pedagogy Workshop for Instructors of Classical Hebrew

Teaching with Advanced Language Methods Including Dialogue

...to the next level.

“Take your Hebrew teaching...

July 10–21, 2017 ❖ Ohio

Purpose

“To enable instructors to employ Second Language Acquisition methods, leading to increased effectiveness and enjoyment in teaching Classical Hebrew”

What You will Gain <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ New Second Language Acquisition / Hebrew resources for immediate classroom use, including Millim: Words for Conversation in the Biblical Hebrew Classroom</li> <li>✓ Skills to enhance existing curriculum with Second Language Acquisition assets</li> <li>✓ Confidence to engage students through conversational use of Classical Hebrew</li> <li>✓ Insights for adding cultural and archaeological insights to existing lessons, with help from Near Eastern artifacts in the Flora Archaeological Collection</li> <li>✓ Familiarity with "Total Physical Response / Story" teaching method</li> <li>✓ Experience in unpacking the nuances of biblical texts--while remaining in Classical Hebrew</li> <li>✓ Opportunities to network with colleagues for future collaboration</li> </ul>	Workshop Format <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ 10% explanation</li> <li>▪ 25% demonstration</li> <li>▪ 65% hands-on interaction and skill-building through micro-teaching experiences</li> <li>▪ 1:8 staff-to-participant ratio, for a support-rich environment.</li> </ul>
	Workshop Environment Through common lunches, a dessert reception, and optional outings, you will enjoy a blend of focused work and relaxation in an environment of hospitality.
Experienced Faculty Team <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Lee Fields, PhD</li> <li>❖ Jennifer Noonan, PhD</li> <li>❖ Paul Overland, PhD (director)</li> </ul> Each has taught Classical Hebrew for multiple years with an SLA / Communicative Language Teaching approach, and has published in the field of Hebrew pedagogy.	Optional Outings (fees apply) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage</li> <li>➤ Scenic Amish Country</li> <li>➤ Cleveland Museum of Art</li> </ul>	Location One hour south of Cleveland, Ohio, on the attractive 25-acre campus of Ashland University.

Food and Lodging Options* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>♦ University apartments with kitchenette (economically priced)</li> <li>♦ Bed-and-Breakfasts within walking distance</li> <li>♦ Hotels</li> <li>♦ Award-winning university food services (reasonably priced)</li> <li>♦ Traditional and faster-food establishments</li> </ul> *University food and lodging is available for a total cost of approximately $60/day.	Participant Qualifications Participants must have a reading knowledge in Classical (Biblical) Hebrew vocabulary and grammar (minimum of first-year course). Modern Hebrew is not needed for this workshop. The workshop is not designed for beginning Hebrew learners.
For more information, please contact us: Dr. Paul Overland, Director poverlan@ashland.edu, or 419.289.5773	Tuition (Includes 10 lunches, Mon.-Fri.) $1449 USD early-bird discount available through June 9, 2017 After June 9: $1599 USD	Scholarship Aid for Graduate Students Participants enrolled in a graduate study program may apply for scholarship aid.

The TALMID 2017 Workshop is an outgrowth of the Cohélet Project, with thanks to the Wabash Center and the National Association of Professors of Hebrew.

For an example of an SLA-styled Classical Hebrew textbook, visit www.LearningBiblicalHebrewInteractively.com.